

STAY FOR GROUPS IN THE CROATIAN CAPITAL: ZAGREB, FULL OF LIFE!
4 days / 3 nights – 2027

INTRODUCTION

Zagreb is the Croatian capital and an important center that presents a completely different face from the coast. The city developed throughout history as a major trade center at the entrance to the Croatian Pannonian Plain, one of the largest fertile areas in Central Europe. A wealthy nobility emerged, as illustrated by the grand castles in its surroundings. Northern Croatia willingly submitted to Austria in the 16th century, which has influenced its architecture and customs. The region is also renowned in Europe for its thermal waters, which have early on attracted the European elite during the winter season.

Zagreb offers numerous lounge clubs, microbreweries, high-quality restaurants, and museums, including the Croatian Museum of Naive Art, as well as several state-of-the-art hotels for business and incentive travel. A green city, it is situated at the foot of Sljeme Hill. The surrounding region is rich in tradition, featuring the picturesque hills that inspired the naïve artists.

But above all, Zagreb is a modest-sized city where residents love to enjoy their surroundings, which are constantly animated by popular gastronomic events, artistic performances, shows, and concerts. It is filled with charming little spots to discover and surprises at every turn! You will be enchanted by its family-friendly atmosphere.

Well-served by a network of highways, it is even possible to reach the famous Plitvice Lakes, the only natural UNESCO World Heritage site in Croatia. You can also visit Slovenia, with its capital Ljubljana just 1.5 hours away by car, and Maribor, a gem of Slovene Baroque, even closer.

THE ADVENT SEASON IN ZAGREB: ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CHRISTMAS MARKETS IN EUROPE!

One of the most special times to discover Zagreb is during the Advent season, starting from the fourth Sunday before Christmas. In recent years, Zagreb has rediscovered its traditions around Christmas markets. Stalls featuring local products and crafts can be found in the main streets and squares of the city center, which is adorned with magical lights and garlands. Cafés, breweries, and restaurants showcase often very original decorations. Everywhere, locals gather around cups of coffee, spiced mulled wine, or special holiday beers. Conversations flow, people shop, and the music intertwines… the city comes alive in a way that truly deserves to be discovered, justifying its recognition as one of the most beautiful Christmas markets in Europe for several years running!

Zagreb was a crossroads of trade routes between the continent and the sea, serving as a gateway from Central Europe to the Balkans. Its fair was famous in the Middle Ages. For a long time, it was the easternmost Catholic bishopric in Europe, which contributes to the uniqueness of its fortified cathedral. The city's history is marked by the opposition between Kaptol Hill, the ecclesiastical seat, and Grič Hill, the center of secular power, which grew alongside the city to become the capital of Croatia. Zagreb is a green city, featuring many parks that host numerous street events throughout the year. It was also an important artistic center, and we particularly recommend visiting its typical Croatian Museum of Naive Art.

The Žumberak region features a landscape composed of amphitheaters formed by sharply sloping hills that create unique microclimates.
